Post-Dispatch Names St. Louis Community Credit Union As A 2016 Top Workplace

St. Louis, Missouri, July 8, 2016 – St. Louis Community Credit Union has been awarded a 2016 Top Workplaces honor by The Post-Dispatch. The Top Workplaces lists are based solely on the results of an employee feedback survey administered by WorkplaceDynamics, LLC, a leading research firm that specializes in organizational health and workplace improvement. Several aspects of workplace culture were measured, including Alignment, Execution, and Connection, just to name a few.

“The Top Workplaces award is not a popularity contest. And oftentimes, people assume it’s all about fancy perks and benefits,” says Doug Claffey, CEO of WorkplaceDynamics. “But to be a Top Workplace, organizations must meet our strict standards for organizational health. And who better to ask about work life than the people who live the culture every day — the employees. Time and time again, our research has proven that what’s most important to them is a strong belief in where the organization is headed, how it’s going to get there, and the feeling that everyone is in it together.” Claffey adds, “Without this sense of connection, an organization doesn’t have a shot at being named a Top Workplace.”

St. Louis Community Credit Union is a full-service financial institution that primarily serves low- to moderate-income individuals and families living in and around the region's urban areas. As a Community Development Financial Institution (CDFI), the Credit Union is committed to helping consumers increase their standard of living by providing responsible, affordable account services and lending opportunities.

The organization has an innate passion to deliver financial service with dignity and respect. As a result, the Credit Union has a real connection to its members and the community. In fact, 89% of St. Louis Community Credit Union's employees come from the communities it reaches.

"Our social mission fuels our success," said Patrick Adams, CEO, St. Louis Community Credit Union. "Whether it is through our caring staff at easily accessible branches throughout the region, meaningful products and services or financial education, we are making a difference. What we do matters."

St. Louis Community Credit Union has 14 branches. Three of those locations are embedded within social service agencies (MET Center – Wellston, Grace Hill – Water Tower and Kingdom House – near downtown), thus meeting consumers where they are.
